In such circumstances, the allocation of Company profits or losses among Members after said additional Capital Contribution may be adjusted to reflect the aggregate change in Capital Contributions. 9.2 Method of Accounting. The records of the Company shall be maintained on the same method of accounting as that of the Members (i.e., cash basis and a fiscal year ending December 31).

X. DISPOSITION OF MEMBERSHIP INTEREST AND ADMISSION OF ASSIGNEES AND ADDITIONAL MEMBERS

10.1 Disposition. A Member's Interest is not fully transferable but rather is subject to a right of first refusal by the remaining Members of the Company. The valuation of the ownership interest shall be based upon the fair market value of the Company's assets (less all liabilities) in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. An appraisal will be requested from an independent accounting firm selected by the Managers. No allowance will be made for good will, trade name, patents or other intangible assets, except those intangible assets reflected on the Company's financial records immediately prior to the appraisal. The results of the appraisal are binding upon all Members. The remaining Members will have a period of ninety days to purchase the withdrawing Member's ownership interest or dissolve the Company. The purpose of this provision is to ensure the survival of the Company despite the withdrawal of a Member. Any transfer of a Member's Interest is subject to the unanimous approval or consent of the remaining Members of the Company. Upon the transfer of a Member's entire Member's Interest (other than a temporary transfer or transfer as a pledge or security interest) the Member shall cease to be a Member and shall have no further rights or obligations under this agreement, except that the Member shall have the right to such information as may be necessary for the computation of the Member's tax liability.

10.2 Admission of Additional Members. The Members may admit Additional Members and determine the Capital Contributions of such Additional Members, provided the Members unanimously consent to the admission.

10.3 Estate Planning Transfers. A Member or Managers has the right to make estate planning transfers of all or any part of his or her Ownership Interest in the Company. The term "estate planning transfer" will mean any transfer made during the life of the Member or Managers without value, or for less than full consideration, by way of a marital partition agreement and/or a transfer of all or any part of an Ownership Interest to a corporation or other business entity wholly-owned by a Shareholder and/or a transfer of all or any part of an Ownership Interest to a trust whose beneficiary or beneficiaries are the Shareholder and/or the spouse of a Shareholder, and/or the descendants of a Shareholder, and/or one or more beneficiaries qualified to receive a charitable gift under Section 170(c) of the Internal Revenue Code. The Operating Agreement will bind the transferee of any estate planning transfer to the exact terms and conditions of this Operating Agreement. The Company will not be required to recognize the interest of any transferee who has obtained a purported interest as the result of a transfer of ownership which is not an authorized transfer. In this case upon the death of a Member the entire Company interest will go to the surviving Member. If both Members die simultaneously or upon the death of the surviving Member the entire business Membership interest shall be transferred to the [Insert Trust Name] Living Trust dated [insert date].

- 10.4 Transfer upon Termination of Marital Relationship. The interest in the Company of each Person (I) who was married to a Member and who acquired his or her interest in the Company as a result of a divorce, marital dissolution or agreement relating thereto or pursuant to a partition or similar agreement, or (ii) who acquired his, her or its interest in the Company as a beneficiary or distribute of the assets of any deceased Person (whether pursuant to a Will, intestate succession or otherwise) who was married to a Member (a Deceased Spouse) and who was not already a Member immediately prior to such distribution or bequest, is subject to an option to purchase (the Marital Option) in favor of the Member from whom the interest was acquired with respect to any acquisition further described in the preceding clause (I) hereof, or in favor of the Member who was married to the Deceased Spouse immediately prior to the death of the Deceased Spouse with respect to any acquisition further described in the preceding clause (ii) hereof (either the Continuing Member). Upon the exercise of a Marital Option, the Person who owns the Company interest subject to the Marital Option (the Spouse Member) must sell the Company interest at the price and on the other terms and conditions agreed upon by the Spouse Member and the Continuing Member. The Spouse Member must exercise his/her Marital Option within 60 calendar days after a Court enters the Parties' Decree of Divorce, or the Option will expire. Company will use all efforts to assist Spouse Member in this purchase and may upon its unanimous discretion extend the option period.

XI. DISSOLUTION AND WINDING UP

11.1 Liquidating Events. The Company shall dissolve and commence winding up and liquidating upon the first to occur of any of the following ("Liquidating Events"):

- i. The vote by all the Members to dissolve, wind up, and liquidate the Company; or
The happening of any other event that makes it unlawful, impossible, or impractical to carry on the business of the Company; or
- ii. There is a Deadlock in any decision of the Members or Managers; or
- iii. All or substantially all the assets of the Company are disposed of; or
- iv. The Company ceases to conduct its business in furtherance of the purposes for which it was formed as set forth in Section 3.

The Members hereby agree that, notwithstanding any provision of the Act, the Company shall not dissolve prior to the occurrence of a Liquidating Event. If it is determined, by a court of competent jurisdiction, that the Company has dissolved prior to the occurrence of a Liquidating Event, the Members hereby agree to continue the business of the Company without a winding up or liquidation.

11.2 Winding Up. Upon the occurrence of a Liquidating Event, the Company shall continue solely for the purposes of winding up its affairs in an orderly manner, liquidating its assets, and satisfying the claims of its creditors and Members and no Member shall take any action that is inconsistent with, or not necessary to or appropriate for, the winding up of the Company's business and affairs. The Managers shall be responsible for overseeing the winding up and dissolution of the Company, shall take full account of the Company's liabilities and property, shall cause the property to be liquidated as promptly as is consistent with obtaining the fair value thereof, and shall cause the proceeds therefrom, to the extent sufficient therefore, to be applied and distributed in the following order:

- i. First, to the payment and discharge of all the Company's debts and liabilities to creditors other than the Members;
- ii. Second, to the payment and discharge of all the Company's debts and liabilities to the Members; and
- iii. The balance, if any, to the Members, in proportion to their positive Capital Account balances.

The Managers shall not receive any additional compensation for any services performed pursuant to this Article 11. Each Manager understands and agrees that by accepting the provisions of this Section 11.2 setting forth the priority of the distribution of the assets of the Company to be made upon its liquidation, such Managers expressly waives any right which he or she, as a creditor of the Company might otherwise have under the Act to receive distributions of assets pari passu with the other creditors of the Membership in connection with the distribution of assets of the Company in satisfaction of any liability of the Company, and hereby subordinates to said creditors any such right.

11.3 Rights of Members. Except as otherwise provided in this Operating Agreement, (a) each Member shall look solely to the assets of the Company for the return of his/her/its Capital Contributions and shall have no right or power to demand or receive property other than cash from the Company, and (b) no Member shall have priority over any other Member as to the return of its Capital Contributions, distributions, or allocations.

WE ASSIGNED YOU AN EMPLOYER IDENTIFICATION NUMBER

Thank you for applying for an Employer Identification Number (EIN). We assigned you EIN ██████████. This EIN will identify you, your business accounts, tax returns, and documents, even if you have no employees. Please keep this notice in your permanent records.

Taxpayers request an EIN for their business. Some taxpayers receive CP575 notices when another person has stolen their identity and are opening a business using their information. If you did not apply for this EIN, please contact us at the phone number or address listed on the top of this notice.

When filing tax documents, making payments, or replying to any related correspondence, it is very important that you use your EIN and complete name and address exactly as shown above. Any variation may cause a delay in processing, result in incorrect information in your account, or even cause you to be assigned more than one EIN. If the information is not correct as shown above, please make the correction using the attached tear-off stub and return it to us.

Based on the information received from you or your representative, you must file the following forms by the dates shown.

Form 1065

03/15/2023

If you have questions about the forms or the due dates shown, you can call us at the phone number or write to us at the address shown at the top of this notice. If you need help in determining your annual accounting period (tax year), see Publication 538, Accounting Periods and Methods.

We assigned you a tax classification (corporation, partnership, estate, trust, EPMF, etc.) based on information obtained from you or your representative. It is not a legal determination of your tax classification, and is not binding on the IRS. If you want a legal determination of your tax classification, you may request a private letter ruling from the IRS under the guidelines in Revenue Procedure 2020-1, 2020-1 I.R.B. 1 (or superseding Revenue Procedure for the year at issue). Note: Certain tax classification elections can be requested by filing Form 8832, Entity Classification Election. See Form 8832 and its instructions for additional information.

A limited liability company (LLC) may file Form 8832, Entity Classification Election, and elect to be classified as an association taxable as a corporation. If the LLC is eligible to be treated as a corporation that meets certain tests and it will be electing S corporation status, it must timely file Form 2553, Election by a Small Business Corporation. The LLC will be treated as a corporation as of the effective date of the S corporation election and does not need to file Form 8832.

The WY Holding Company is for Anonymity and privatization. People can't see you as the member on your LLC in WY or your mailing address.

The Trust has beneficial ownership in the WY LLC, that way everything that the WY LLC has as a subsidiary can now roll up in the Trust and avoid probate.

I understand I can move them to either one, the question was why did I set up the holding company, there must have been a strategy.

Was it to use the holding company to hold all assets, and the other llcs to conduct business?

Sincerely,

Aaron

Donovan – I am sure you explained it to me but I can not recall and my office is ready to move all the existing assets for current business to new LLCs.

Are we moving the assets to White Barn Enterprise or Farm House Holdings?
