For Immediate Release

The Wyoming Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) continues to investigate the incident at the Capitol that occurred on October 21, 2025. The incident began when a suspicious object, now described as a deconstructed live firework munition with a fuse, was discovered outside the State Capitol, prompting the evacuation of the building at approximately 9:45 a.m.

DCI has reviewed a significant amount of video evidence and identified two subjects who were in the area together during the time in question. DCI is actively working to identify these individuals for questioning.

The first subject is described as darker complected with a dark hoodie. The hoodie had a circle shaped emblem on the front and sleeves. The first subject was wearing light colored pants and dark colored shoes with white shoe laces and a white toe box. The second subject is lighter complected wearing a dark colored coat. The coat was possibly made by North Face. The unzipped coat was over a dark colored shirt and he was carrying a backpack. The second subject was wearing dark colored pants and dark shoes.

The first subject appeared to be wearing a Vitriol Angel Face Black Wash Zip Hoodie. The sweatshirt has cyber sigilism designs with Old English text.

Old English Text is embroidered onto the hood of the sweatshirt.

DCI asks any witnesses that may have information about the incident to visit the DCI Website at <https://wyomingdci.wyo.gov/>, or to submit a tip by calling 307-460-6504. Additionally, DCI is interested in any camera footage from residents or businesses in the area, specifically between 4:00 a.m. and 10:00 a.m. on October 21st.
